

I am an end user and small business owner. I use an independent ISP via access over SBCs DSL lines to get Internet service. I believe I get much better service than that offered by SBC directly. In particular my ISP offers certain features that are not offered by SBC. These are important to me and my business. I am concerned about losing them if independent ISPs lose access to SBC DSL lines.